If you are the holder of a first home savings account (FHSA), use this form to transfer property from your FHSA to another of your FHSA, registered retirement savings plans (RRSP) or registered retirement income funds (RRIF).

If you are a spouse or common-law partner of a deceased holder of an FHSA who wants to directly transfer property from the deceased holder's FHSA to your own FHSA, RRSP or RRIF, use form RC722, Transfer from an FHSA to an FHSA, RRSP or RRIF After the Death of the Holder.

If you are required due to the breakdown of your marriage or common-law partnership to make a direct transfer from your FHSA to an FHSA, RRSP or RRIF of your current or former spouse or common-law partner, use form RC723, Transfer from an FHSA to another FHSA, RRSP or RRIF on Breakdown of Marriage or Common-law Partnership.

If you are making more than one transfer from your FHSA to your FHSA, RRSPs or RRIFs, fill out a separate form for each transfer.

Instructions

Who fills out this form

The FHSA holder will fill out and sign Part 1, Part 2 and Part 3, and give the form to the FHSA or RRSP issuer or RRIF carrier that will be receiving the property.

The FHSA or RRSP issuer or RRIF carrier receiving the property from the FHSA will fill out and sign Part 4 and send the form to the transferor. Once the FHSA or RRSP issuer or RRIF carrier receives the property from the FHSA and the form from the transferor, they will fill out and sign Part 6.

The transferor transferring the property from the FHSA will fill out and sign Part 5. Once completed, the transferor will transfer the property from the FHSA and return the form to the FHSA or RRSP issuer or RRIF carrier for completion.

The FHSA holder, FHSA or RRSP issuer or RRIF carrier, and transferor should keep a copy of the form for their records at each step outlined above.

Do not send a copy of this form to the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) unless the CRA asks to see it.

Reporting requirements

The transferor should not issue a T4FHSA slip to record the amount transferred. The transferred amount is not required to be included in the FHSA holder's income.

The FHSA or RRSP issuer or RRIF carrier who receives the transfer should not issue a T4FHSA slip or RRSP contribution receipt for the amount transferred. The FHSA holder cannot deduct the amount transferred from their FHSA to another of their FHSA, RRSPs or RRIFs.

The amount transferred will not reduce the FHSA holder's unused FHSA participation room or unused RRSP deduction room.

Exceptions for FHSA holders who have an excess FHSA amount at the time of the transfer

If the FHSA holder has an excess FHSA amount at the time of the transfer and they transfer property from their FHSA to their RRSP or RRIF, any portion of the amount transferred that exceeds the total FMV of all the property held in all of their FHSA at the time of the transfer minus their excess FHSA amount at the time of the transfer, will be treated as both:

- a taxable withdrawal from their FHSA, which must be included as income on their income tax and benefit return for the year of the transfer
- a new contribution to their RRSP at the time of the transfer

For more information, go to canada.ca/withdrawal-transfer-out-fhsa.

Note: FHSA or RRSP issuers or RRIF carriers do not have any additional reporting requirements when an excess FHSA amount is included in the transfer.
